C. PAYMENT

Hawthorn University strives to be an affordable online higher education Institution with low costs per credit, no semester fees and a pay as you go policy. Tuition is due upon enrollment into a course and must be paid in U.S. currency by check, money order, or credit card. Students pay only for the courses in which they are currently enrolled. Students will receive the course syllabus and other course related materials upon receipt of course tuition.

D. REFUND POLICY

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The program in which you are enrolling is distance education - not offered in real time. The institution will release the first lesson and materials to you within 24 hours, typically immediately, after the execution of the enrollment agreement, which includes payment for the first course. The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

You will receive a refund of all monies paid within 30 days of cancellation. After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time; and you have the right to receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled days in the current period of attendance in your program through the last day of attendance.

Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to: 02/13/2020
Date

Period of Attendance means:

- 2 credit course = 4 weeks (20 days)
- 3 credit course = 8 weeks (40 days)
- 4 credit course = 12 weeks (60 days)

Note: The period of attendance days for the refund policy is based on a five-day week (Monday through Friday). The learning management system is available 7 days a week, 24 hours a day for the duration of the course.

Cancellation is effective on the date the notice of cancellation is provided to the institution. The notice may be provided in any form. Written may be sent to PO Box 275, Whitethorn, CA 95589, orally by phone, email to registrar@hawthornuniversity.org or the preferred online method through the student portal's Course Withdrawal Request.

This Institution shall transmit all of the lessons and other materials, as applicable, to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the Institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the Institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student but shall not be obligated to pay any refund after all of the lessons and material are transmitted.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAM

You may withdraw from the school at any time and receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled days in the current period of attendance in your program through the last day of attendance. Refunds will be paid within 30 days. Notification of program withdrawal may be provided in any form. Written may be sent to PO Box 275, Whitethorn, CA 95589, orally by phone, email to registrar@hawthornuniversity.org, or the preferred method online through the student portal's Program Withdrawal Request.

For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, a student shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a program of instruction when any of the following occurs:

- The student notifies the Institution of the student's withdrawal or as of the date of the student's withdrawal, whichever is later.
- The Institution terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the Institution; absences in excess of maximum set forth by the Institution; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the School.
- Failure to return from a leave of absence.

For the purpose of determining the amount of the refund, the date of the student's withdrawal shall be deemed the date the written withdrawal request is received by the University or the date the University terminates the student. The amount owed equals the daily charge for the current period of attendance (total institutional charge, minus non-refundable fees, divided by the number of days in the period of attendance), multiplied by the number of days scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal. For distance education students, scheduled days is based on a five-day week (Monday through Friday), which does not include any defined holiday as stated below.

- January 1st.
- The third Monday in January, known as "Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day."
- The third Monday in February.
- March 31st known as "Cesar Chavez Day."
- The last Monday in May.
- July 4th.
- The first Monday in September.
- September 9th, known as "Admission Day."
- The fourth Friday in September, known as "Native American Day."
- The second Monday in October, known as "Columbus Day."
- November 11th, known as "Veterans Day."
- December 25th.
- Good Friday.
- Every day appointed by the President or Governor for a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday.

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the refund shall be sent to the lender, third party or, if appropriate, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. Hawthorn University does not participate in Title IV financial aid programs.

WITHDRAWAL FROM A COURSE

You may withdraw from a course at any time and receive a pro rata refund of tuition if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled days in the period of attendance through the last day of attendance in the course, within 30 days of withdrawal.

Notification of course withdrawal may be provided in any form. Written may be sent to PO Box 275, Whitethorn, CA 95589, orally by phone, email to registrar@hawthornuniversity.org, or the preferred method online through the student portal's Course Withdrawal Request. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of withdrawal.

To remain an active student a student must be continuously enrolled in a minimum of one course and making satisfactory progress, as defined in the catalog.

For the purpose of determining the amount of the refund, the date of the student's withdrawal shall be deemed the last date of recorded attendance. The amount owed equals the daily charge for the current period of attendance (total institutional charge, minus non-refundable fees, divided by the number of days in the period of attendance), multiplied by the number of days scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal. For distance education students, scheduled days is based on a five-day week (Monday through Friday), which does not include any defined holiday as stated above in the Withdrawal from the Program section.

- Special Consideration: In case of a student illness or accident, death in the family, or other circumstances beyond the control of the student, Hawthorn University will give special consideration to the student's request for cancellation beyond the minimum refund policy.

SAMPLE REFUND CALCULATION

Total charged and received for period of attendance: • Period of Attendance = 8 weeks (40 days) • $250.00 per credit, 3 credit course	$750.00
Cost per day ($750.00/40) =	$18.75
Number of days attended =	20
Percentage of attendance (20/40) =	50% If 60% (24 days) or more of the scheduled days in the period of attendance have been schedule through the last day of attendance no refund will be provided.*
Amount due to the University (daily charge for the course x number of days attended minus any California holidays listed above)	$375.00
Amount of refund = 20 x $18.75	$375.00

- The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another Institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

15. Academic Integrity and Honor Pledge: All students and faculty at Hawthorn University are expected to be honorable and observe this Honor Code. The University promotes, as part of its mission and purpose, the development of men and women of strong character and responsibility. Honesty and dependable self-discipline are extremely important. Academic honesty is taken seriously. Proper citations are required for all written assignments. Students must refer to the online document "Citation Guidelines" for all assignments. Cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty or academically unethical behavior are in conflict with the spirit and intent of higher education. If an instructor uncovers evidence clearly indicating that work was not produced entirely by the student, or is not cited in the proper format, the instructor should immediately contact the student. Penalties for academic dishonesty may range from a simple warning, through repeating the course, up to and including suspension and/or expulsion, especially for repeat offenses.

As a member of the Hawthorn University community, I affirm that I have read and do pledge to abide by the following Academic Honor Code.

I agree to use my knowledge and degree or certificate from Hawthorn University according to all applicable laws. I understand that the programs offered do not qualify me to practice medicine. I understand that enrollment in Hawthorn University programs does not guarantee employment. I agree not to reproduce copy or otherwise duplicate, publish or disseminate in any way materials received from Hawthorn University without the express written permission of Hawthorn University. I understand and consent that any teacher-student telephone conference may be recorded. I understand and consent that webinars may be recorded and made available to the public on our website. I will not reproduce the recording and will not lend, sell or otherwise dispose of it to anyone, or make a transcript of any such recording except for personal use only.

16. Student Tuition Recovery Fund: The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition. You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.

Prior to signing this enrollment agreement, you must be given a catalog or brochure and a School Performance Fact Sheet, which you are encouraged to review prior to signing this agreement. These documents contain important policies and performance data for this Institution. This Institution is required to have you sign and date the information included in the School Performance Fact Sheet relating to completion rates, placement rates, license examination passage rates, and salaries or wages, and the most recent three-year cohort default rate, if applicable, prior to signing this agreement.

I certify that I have received the catalog, School Performance Fact Sheet, and information regarding completion rates, placement rates, license examination passage rates, and salary or wage information, and the most recent three-year cohort default rate, if applicable, included in the School Performance Fact sheet, and have signed, initialed, and dated the information provided in the School Performance Fact Sheet.
